

New EU Directive and “Light Touch”

Articles 74, 75 and 76 apply to a set of services which are very similar to those included in Part B” under Directive 2004/18/EC. The services in question are set out in Annex XVI to the new Directive.

The Regulations allow National governments to set out the rules under which services with a TOTAL CONTRACT value of approximately £650,000 or are to be purchased. There are a number of caveats so the government has few options. It most certainly does not have a blank sheet as some have suggested. The most important requirements of Article 76 are that Member States shall put in place rules for the award of contracts... in order to ensure contracting authorities comply with the principles of transparency and equal treatment of economic operators.

The Article goes on to require Member States to ensure that contracting authorities take into account the need to:

Ensure quality; continuity; accessibility; affordability; availability and comprehensiveness of the services, the specific needs of different target categories of users including disadvantaged and vulnerable groups; the involvement and empowerment of users; and innovation.

In these circumstances it is difficult to see how the purchasing of Annex XVI services will be radically different from the systems used to currently buy Part B services. However, until the UK government publishes its draft Regulations which will bring the Directive into UK law the detail remains unknown.

The following is a list of the codes and services which are included in Annex XVI relating to Health, Social Care, Administrative social, Educational, Healthcare and Cultural services:
